Oakwood GALA

Tonight, our community celebrates the completion of the School's major renovation project, a 50 year history, and the next frontier of Oakwood School. We invite you to generously support the School through the Silent Auction, Live Auction, and 100% tax-deductible Raise the Paddle this evening.

Funds raised will be invested in:

- Providing tuition assistance to families in need
- Expanding our facility to serve 20% more students
- Enhancing teacher training and hiring additional staff

For 52 years, Oakwood School has nurtured students by providing the necessary academic resources to ensure each child thrives. Let's continue to invest in our strong foundation so that future generations of students can experience Oakwood at its best.

8. Mr. Blair for the Day!

Priceless!

Here's the chance for your child to really rule the roost! As Assistant Head of School for the Day, your child will begin his or her "work" day by greeting students at the front entrance, meeting with Mr. McIntyre, Head of School, and lead announcements for the entire school.

Following a busy morning, the new Assistant Head will plan out an upcoming event, oversee outdoor recess, and enjoy an "executive lunch" with two friends and Mr. McIntyre in the meeting room.

The afternoon will conclude with hosting a school-wide fire drill, conducting a facility tour, and, of course, prepping for afternoon carpool.

Your child will have the opportunity to make an "executive order" declaring a special event for the following day...maybe an extra recess?

This exciting day will be captured in photos and a memory book will be created for your family to remember.

9. Wine Lovers: Californian or Virginian wines?

$480 value

This auction item allows you to taste and enjoy a great selection of Virginian (Blue Ridge Mountains), and Californian (Napa) wines. Cheers!

1) Take home six bottles of wine (2 each of white, red, and rose) to enjoy anytime! This basket comes with 6 wine glasses (2 for each type of wine) in a beautiful woven basket.

These wines will let you taste the complexity of Virginian wines, as defined by Rappahannock Cellars: "Vintage-to-Vintage variation is a struggle in Virginia, but it also tends to define the personality of Virginia wine. We in Virginia believe that this variation, coupled with the challenges of grape growing in the mid-Atlantic, forces us to be some of the best viticulturists and wine makers in the world. We have no choice but to be the best...and we believe we are."

2) A private, in-home wine tasting for you and up to 14 guests! Relax and enjoy as your WineShop at Home Consultant guides you to limited production, artisan wines handcrafted in Napa Valley. These wines are exclusive and not sold in stores. Best quality at the best price!

Our Wine Consultant's job is to treat you and your guests to a wine lifestyle experience like no other. Your job? Invite your friends and family, lay out a few simple appetizers and relax! We'll do the rest.
